Restaurant De Kwizien has a tradition of supporting young talents. Chef Arne Beirinckx is a talent of a new generation of young chefs in Flanders. He is a team player and top mentor for his colleagues and interns.

For her kitchen he selects fair products where he is assured of a quality chain “from farm to plate”. His innovative approach and revelatory ideas, together with the traditional warm hospitality of the province, bring a fresh sprinkle in the gastronomy in the region.

He continues the long tradition of Restaurant De Kwizien to offer young culinary talents an internship. Many international students have discovered at Restaurant De Kwizien how European gastronomy combines both tradition and innovations. Students appreciate the engagement and passion of the team at Restaurant De Kwizien to help them in their learning journey.
