Jitsk introduces a new generation of chocolates. In his chocolate workshop and shop in Antwerp chef Jitsk Heyninck creates the most original chocolate pralines and delicious ice cream. His start in 2015 was an immediate hit. Gault Millau mentioned him as culinary discovery of 2016.

Chef Jitsk Heyninck is a member of a new generation of chocolatier in Flanders. He has travelled the world with his chocolate creations. He is young, but very ambitious and passionate about chocolate and has a love for pure flavours. In 2009 he was the youngest chocolatier who participated in the world expo in Shanghai, China. Two years after that he participated again in Seoul, Korea and travelled the world for Chocolate World, a producer of equipment for the chocolate industry.

The love for Craftmanship and love for the products are the two key ingredients of his personal approach in creation chocolates and ice cream. Chef Jitsk Heyninck always uses the best ingredients, sourced from small scale, driven suppliers. With lots of passion and respect each ingredient is then combined so that it fully comes into its own. Jitsk stands for high quality and authentic chocolate products. The brand "Jitsk" distinguishes itself from the competition: no unnecessary pomp, but craftsmanship and love for the product.
