Sepideh Sedaghatnia has built a reputation to be one of the most distinguished wine connoisseurs in Belgium. As a young girl she developed a strong passion for wine and service. In her personal approach she uses her broad knowledge about wine and wine making to take her guests on a journey full of taste, passion, emotion, ...

'The beauty of the world of wines is that it unites people from different cultures and generations.'
This quote in her bestseller book "69 things you always wanted to know about wine", presents the essence of her love for wine.

She started a successful career as a sommelier in international hotels and later at the Michelin starred Restaurant 't Zilte. She was selected Sommelier of the Year in 2014. Since 2015 she runs her own Gastro & Wine Bar "Divin by Sepi", where the menu shows her pride in and her love for her home country, Iran. In her Gastro & Wine bar she combines her passion for wine with her roots, presenting a unique French cuisine with Persian influences.

Students who choose for an internship at "Divin by Sepi", in kitchen or in service, will experience the international culinary trends on modern gastronomy.

Sepideh is invited in many TV shows and is a popular jury member of the TV show "My Pop-Up Restaurant".
